STORM RAGES ON EASTERN COAST

Blizzard Sweeps Shore—Trains Stalled—Traffic Stops and Sea Craft in Peril

SNOW COVERS N. Y.—CITIES BURIED IN DRIFTS

18,000 Men Shovel Snow in Streets of New York—Ships Ashore on Southern Coast

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—A fierce blizzard is today sweeping the Atlantic coast. Trains are stalled, wires are down and street car systems are paralyzed as far south as Georgia. Off shore many ships are reported as in distress. Seven inches of snow has fallen here and more is falling. In Washington the snow is six inches deep and other cities are buried beneath deep drifts. The temperature has risen slightly, however, bringing much relief here. Outside the harbor dozens of crafts are pitching, waiting for an opportunity to enter.

By noon 18,000 men were at work on the streets shoveling snow. The majority are men previously unemployed. The river men fear an ice block in the harbor. Navigation is already impeded. No attempt is being made to preserve railroad schedules. The New York Central has cancelled all its freight trains.

SCORE PERISHED IN FIERCE GALE—$1,000,000 DAMAGE

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Fully a score of people perished here today in one of the most severe blizzards in the city's history. The death toll may be much larger. Many actually froze to death on the streets. The damage is more than a million dollars. Traffic is impossible, the streets are nearly deserted, few trains are running and there are no cars to the suburbs. The wind reached eighty miles an hour during the afternoon. After a brief lull when the sun shone, the wind resumed with renewed fury at 3 o'clock.

SHIPS IN DISTRESS ON TURBULENT SEAS

Cape Charles, Va., reported by wireless that the crew of the tramp steamer Katherine, the bark is ashore there. Another unidentified vessel in the same vicinity is in distress. The British steamer Taina is ashore on the Georgia coast, and the schooner Maria Teel is in distress on Nantucket Sound.

4 BARGES SINK WITH EIGHT PERSONS ABOARD

NEW HAVEN, Feb. 14.—Eight persons are believed to have perished in the sound when the tug Pliny Flisk was compelled to abandon four barges she was towing. The barges with the men aboard are reported to have sunk. The government transport, General Brannan, is out in search of the barges.

2 DIE AT PITTSBURGH FROM COLD—TWO ARE PROSTRATED

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 14.—Two deaths and two prostrations from cold were reported here today. Ten inches of snow had fallen at 11 o'clock. All communication has been crippled.

GORE FAVORED IN TODAY'S EVIDENCE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 14.—Testimony tending to support the contention of the defense that Senator Gore, who is being sued by Mrs. Besie Bond for alleged assault, is the victim of a political conspiracy, was offered when the trial was resumed today.

The defense recalled Deputy Sheriff Escell, who said he talked with Thaddeus Robertson, an important witness for Mrs. Bond, just before the suit was filed. He said: "Robertson told me that Gore had double-crossed him but that his revenge would be awfully sweet."

Robertson was recalled to the stand and denied making such a statement.

General Wilson, Friend of Lincoln, is Dead

ANOTHER friend of Abraham Lincoln, General James Grant Wilson, passed away just before another anniversary of the birth of the war president. General Wilson was eighty-one years of age, and he had been known to the public in military, social and literary movements for more than half a century. He was a friend of many prominent men and women of the nineteenth century, among them being Thackeray, Gladstone, William Cullen Bryant, Washington Irving, Dickens, Sherman, Farragut and Fitz-Greene Halleck. Among the books he wrote were "Great Commanders Series," "Memorial History of the City of New York," "The Poets and Poetry of Scotland," "Memoirs of an American Lady," "Sketches of Illinois Officers," "Mr. Secretary Peypys and His Diary," "Life of Fitz-Greene Halleck," "Sketches of Illustrious Soldiers," "Bryant and His Friends," "The World's Largest Libraries," "Love in Letters," "Life of General Grant," "The Presidents of the United States," and "Thackeray in the United States."

ESCONDIDO, Feb. 14.—Twenty-four boxes of citrus fruit, including oranges, lemons, grapefruit and tangerines, were expressed from Escondido to San Bernardino yesterday to go into the National Orange Show as a part of the San Diego county exhibit.

Cumbre Tunnel Fire Still Burning
CUMBRE, Chihuahua, Mex., Feb. 14.—Fire in the Cumbre tunnel, where fifty-one lives were lost nine days ago, is still burning fiercely and the searchers expect that when they are able to make a complete exploration they will find little but the ashes of the victims.

South Carolina Solons Kill Anti-Alien Land Bill
COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 14.—The anti-alien land bill, directed against ownership of land by Asiatics, was killed in the senate yesterday at the request of its author.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—U. S. Senator Augustus O. Bacon of Georgia died today after an illness of two weeks. He was chairman of the senate foreign relations committee and a member of other important committees. The senate immediately adjourned for the day when his death was announced by Senator Overman on the floor.

Senator Bacon fell to the pavement two months ago, fracturing his ribs. It is believed the fall induced kidney troubles which were partially responsible for his untimely end.

110 PLEDGED THEMSELVES TO SUPPORT NO PARTY IN 1916 WITHOUT DRY PLATFORM

A well-filled church greeted Hon. E. W. Chaffin at the First Christian church last evening.

He declared that temperance forces all over the union are behind the "California Dry" campaign. Mr. Chaffin emphasized the fact that the dry fight in California was a national fight. If California goes dry the nation will probably have the question in the platforms in 1916.

He said that Chicago had not recovered from the slime the world's fair brought to it in 1893. That the gamblers and other disreputable people were sheltered and abetted by the liquor traffic in that city. That the gamblers' trust was organized there and became so strongly entrenched that it was powerful in the city's affairs as the city government itself. It is the business of the temperance people to prevent that same thing happening at San Francisco in 1915.

DYER IS UNDER PROVIDING FOR ARREST AT CALGARY INSPECTION OF GAS METERS

Fugitive from This County is Caught—Wanted on a Felony Charge

BONDSMEN WILL NOT GET $5,000 RETURNED

Prisoner to Return Without the Formality of Extra-dition

CALGARY, Alberta, Feb. 14.—Chas. Dyer is held here today by the police on information from Santa Ana, California, authorities, who charge that he jumped bail there after criminally mistreating his 14-year-old stepdaughter. He admitted his identity and agreed to return without legal procedure. He was working on the streets as a laborer when arrested.

Herbert Dyer, fugitive from this county, is in jail in Calgary, Canada. This morning the sheriff's office got a wire from Calgary, saying: "Herbert Dyer arrested. Will return without papers."

"A. CUDDY, Chief Constable." Dyer is charged in this county with felonious mistreatment of his stepdaughter, Helen Butler, aged 14. Dyer was arrested on Dec. 17, and gave $5,000 bail. Immediately afterward he disappeared. The sheriff's office has kept persistently on Dyer's trail, and brought about the arrest in Calgary.

As a result of Dyer's disappearance and failure to show up for his preliminary hearing, his bail was forfeited and was collected from his bondsmen, Frank Machleb and W. P. Webb of Anaheim. That money, $5,000, is in the county treasury and cannot be returned. Machleb and Webb have a second mortgage on Dyer's place, but that will not cover their loss. The two men knew Dyer in an Anaheim lodge, and thought him straight. Their opinion has changed.

Charles Heriford, who worked on Dyer's ranch at East Anaheim, was in the superior court yesterday and will answer to arraignment on Feb. 27. He is charged with the same crime for which Dyer is to be brought back.

It is probable that Sheriff Ruddock will go after Dyer.

SENATOR BACON IS DEAD AT CAPITAL—WAS ILL TWO WEEKS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—U. S. Senator Augustus O. Bacon of Georgia died today after an illness of two weeks. He was chairman of the senate foreign relations committee and a member of other important committees. The senate immediately adjourned for the day when his death was announced by Senator Overman on the floor.

If Incorrect, Gas Company Pays; If Correct, It's Up to Complainant

FIXING THE RATE FOR NATURAL GAS

A Test is to Be Made of the Water Pressure on South Broadway

By an ordinance now before the City Trustees inspection of gas meters is provided for. Under the proposed ordinance any meter may be inspected, and if found defective the cost of inspection, $1, must be paid by the gas company, and if found correct to be paid by the complainant.

The ordinance was prepared for the purpose of setting a rate and settling upon provisions for supplying this city with natural gas, as the Southern Counties Gas Co. proposes to do before April 1. The rate will be seventy-five cents per 1000 cubic feet.

By the ordinance as now drawn, any company furnishing Santa Ana with natural gas must maintain an artificial plant to supply artificial gas in case the natural gas supply should fail. In case of failure of natural gas, artificial gas must be furnished for thirty days at the rate of seventy-five cents, and if natural gas is not supplied within thirty days the rate of $1 may be charged thereafter.

The City Trustees shall appoint an inspector of gas meters. Any person who believes his gas meter is not registering correctly can have it tested. If the test shows that the meter is approximately correct, that it shows less than two per cent, the complainant must pay the inspection fee of $1. If the meter is over two per cent fast the company must pay the $1 fee. The inspector shall have the fees as his sole compensation.

The gas company may charge $1 extra when the gas is ordered and is ordered disconnected within sixty days.

The first of April of each year the gas company shall report to the city the amount of its earnings and investment. The city shall adjust the rate so that the company shall get seven per cent upon Santa Ana's share of meters through the system.

At a meeting of the Trustees last night the ordinance was read and referred to the city attorney for revision.

To Haul Gravel

H. D. Connell asked that the city haul some gravel on to Lucy street between First and Fourth streets. The street at present is in bad condition, the request was granted.

To Test Well

A written offer was received from Johnson and Tanahan to place a 12-inch rotary pump in an old city well to see what the pump will do, the city to furnish an electric meter. The offer asked that should the city call for bids that some pump be specified that will do the work.

Water Superintendent Reid said the well is a shallow one and he thinks with a proper pump double the present supply of water can be secured from that one well. The city would be under no obligations to accept the pump proposed to be installed.

Alderman considered the offer liberal, and a good chance for the city to make a needed experiment. On his motion the water superintendent was instructed to accept the experimental demonstration. If this rotary is accepted the cost will be in the neighborhood of $1000, the cost being $9 a foot.

City Clerk Burke suggested that it would be well for the city not to attempt to pass any traffic ordinances until the supreme court gives its decision on the state automobile law, for the decision may outline the powers of municipalities over traffic on streets. The proposed ordinance regulating traffic in alleys was laid over accordingly.

REBELS TODAY BEGAN ATTACK ON MAZATLAN

Defense Plans For All Foreigners at Mexico City Rushed—7,000 Rebel Recruits For March South

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14.—The rebels began a fierce attack on Mazatlan today, led by Felipe Angeles. The rebels were several thousand strong. Early reports contained no indication of the trend of the battle.

The foreign defense committee is making every effort to provide for an adequate defense of the foreigners here in case the fighting extends to the capital. More arms have been provided and provisions have been stored. All foreigners have been notified where they can come in event of trouble.

The reports that the British cruiser Suffolk has landed machine guns and has moved them here, proved true. They are mounted at the entrance of the British legation.

An unconfirmed report is that Foreign Minister Moline is to resign to take a European diplomatic billet, and that Jose Rojas is to succeed him.

PLANS FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGNERS PUSHED

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14.—The foreign legations here are making full preparations to deal with any emergency within the range of reasonable possibilities, so far as the protection of foreign lives is concerned. All the legations are working in accord, although the American embassy is not included in either the plans or the organization. It is said that the British propose to help care for Knoller, and Alderman said he was leary of the proposition. He said he knew of no good to come from boxing. McPhee joined in opposing the project and on his motion the petition was denied.

Water Pressure
McPhee said that he had heard a good deal about the water pressure on South Broadway, which street is to be paved. He said residents of the street yesterday told him the pressure is not sufficient, and they believe a main should be put in to supply greater pressure before the paving is laid. McPhee said a demonstration of the pressure should be made to satisfy the people.

Water Superintendent Reid said no demonstration is needed as facts are facts, and hydraulics can be figured, and the only way now left open to increase the pressure is by "tie-ins" from adjoining streets, as paving begins today. He assured the board that there is no foundation for fearing that there will be a lack of pressure at any time. He said the line is "tied in" with connections east and west with other mains, and it can be "tied in" at every block. Orange avenue has only a two-inch main from end to end and no "tie ins," and Broadway with several "tie ins" does not need a four-inch main. The street did have cause for complaint early last summer, but ample improvements have been made since. "The northern part of the city will be dry before that part of the city feels a loss," said Reid. "All the water distributed there is pumped first to Eighth and French streets."

McPhee stated that the best way to satisfy the people is to set a time, turn on the faucets and show the people that the pressure is there. He was there yesterday but only a few hose were in use and the pressure seemed as good as it is at his house. He suggested that the trustees go down on the street and turn on the water.

McPhee moved that the whole board visit Broadway and have the test at 4 o'clock next Monday. This motion carried.

The board was asked to order the repair of a sidewalk on Flower street, the sidewalk having been broken by the city's steam roller. The damage was done while a house was being moved. No action was taken.

STRIKING MINERS ASKED FOR PROBES

Welcome Congress Inquiry Into Their Affairs—Want Probe of Mine Owners

HANCOCK, Mich., Feb. 14.—Judge Hilton, counsel for the striking Michigan copper miners, testified yesterday before the congressional investigation committee that the miners will welcome inquiry into their union affairs. He declared the unionists want at the same time the inquiries to investigate the financial status of the mine owners. They also requested an investigation of the Citizens' Alliance, its officers and its purposes.

The committee took the requests under consideration, as Chairman Taylor was uncertain just how far the committee could go. He telegraphed for copies of the Federal Industrial Committee's report published at Washington on Wednesday for consultation.

ARMY FLIERS SMASHED A RECORD

STARTED OUT WITH TWO PASSENGERS

Soldiers Made Flight of 246 Miles, Setting New American Mark

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 14.—Lieut. T. F. Dodd and Sergeant F. Marcus, army aviators, broke the American endurance and without-stop records today, flying from North Island Navy Camp to Burbank, near Los Angeles, and return, covering 246 miles.

MARTIN COMPELLED TO COME TO EARTH

OCEANSIDE, Feb. 14.—Glenn Martin was compelled to alight with his passengers here after covering eighty miles of his proposed San Diego trip. The bearings of his aeroplane engine burned out. Repair parts were dispatched by automobile from Los Angeles, but probably the flight cannot be resumed today.

MARTIN ENDEAVORED TO BREAK RECORDS

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Glenn Martin in his biplane, carrying Frank Garbutt, millionaire sportsman, and Charles Broadwick as passengers, ascended at Griffith Park at 9:20, headed for San Diego. Martin expected to break the world's duration and altitude records. He carried a sealed paragraph and all wore Martin life parachutes.

AEROPLANES PASSED OVER SANTA ANA

This morning two aeroplanes passed over Santa Ana, one of them twice. First about 8 o'clock an army biplane crossed over the southwest part of the city, headed for Los Angeles. Without stopping at Los Angeles, the aviators turned back and flew to San Diego, establishing a new American endurance record. On the return trip this machine went over the southwest part of the city at 9:35 o'clock.

About forty minutes later Glenn Martin's flying-fish biplane was sighted, headed for San Diego. It passed over the northeastern part of the city about 10:05 o'clock.

Martin gained rapidly on the army fliers. The soldiers passed over San Juan Capistrano at 10:15 and Martin whirled over at 10:28.

At 10:55 Martin had to light at Oceanside, from which place he called up his mother, Mrs. C. Y. Martin, in Santa Ana, and told her of his misfortune. He said some of the bearings in his engine gave out, and he had to stop his engine and volveplane to earth. He landed safely. He said that he did not expect to be able to resume his flight to San Diego until tomorrow.

SETTLED ON LOW BASE FOR DEAD MINERS

DENVER, Feb. 14.—One thousand dollars per man was paid to the families of miners killed in the Primero mine disaster in 1910, according to President Jesse Welborn of the Colorado Iron and Fuel Company who testified today before the congressional committee investigating the Colorado coal miners strike. Welborn admitted that many of these men earned $1500 yearly. Chairman Foster asked the witness if he believed the men therefore were only worth a thousand dollars to their families, Welborn replied: "That's what we settled for."

The witness testified that he felt no responsibility for the strike and its attendant disorders. He said he preferred a strike to conferring with the unionists.

A discussion as to the high mortality in Colorado mines followed. Congressman Austin said: "I think we all agree that the mortality records of American mines are high compared with other countries because congress neglected until four years ago the duty of creating a bureau of mines."

BREAK GROUND FOR A CHURCH AN AUTO SHOW FOR ANAHEIM

Huntington Beach Soon to Start Construction of $10,000 Building Dealers of North End of County Are to Exhibit Cars Jointly

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Feb. 14.—The breaking of ground for the building of a new $10,000 Methodist church here will be made the occasion of a formal celebration. It will occur on the morning of February 24, and Brown and Curry, the noted evangelists; Rev. Dr. Alfred Inwood, district superintendent of the San Diego division of the church in this state, and other noted clerics will be present. The full program is now being prepared.

The local Board of Trade has made a donation to the Japanese relief fund, transmitting it through the Japanese Association near this city, in the city district, to show the good will of the people of this section towards the Japanese. The strong prejudice against this class of people evident in the northern part of California does not obtain here where a number of ranches are rented to Japanese and where 500 are employed all the year around.

FORD CAR RUNS AMUCK Anaheim Herald: A Ford automobile is badly smashed on North Los Angeles street. The license number, 112,612, shows that the car belongs to Ed. Gaynor of Fullerton. Gaynor works on the Emory lease of the Standard Oil Company, but no one at the office knows anything of the accident.

From appearances one would judge that the steering gear had broken and the car had run against the curb. The front axle is knocked out of place, front tires punctured and a general mashing of the front end of the running gear.

No definite information could be gained as to whether anyone had been hurt or not.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally that Nobody Can Tell

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application of two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.—Advertisement.

SUFFRAGETTES NOT AMONG INVITED

National Woman Suffrage
Union of England Will Hold
Big Demonstration Tonight

LONDON, Feb. 14.—A tremendous demonstration in favor of votes for women will take place tonight at the Albert hall under the auspices of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies. Tickets for nearly every one of the 10,000 seats were disposed of some days ago, and the organizers of the meeting are confident that it will be one of the most enthusiastic in the history of the movement in Great Britain.

Delegates from all the constitutional suffrage societies—of both men and women—in the country will be present. The militants alone—the Women's Social and Political Union and the Women's Freedom League—were not invited, and particular care was exercised that tickets did not fall into the hands of members of these organizations for fear of unpleasant interruptions.

Mrs. Millicent G. Fawcett, president of the National Union, will occupy the chair, and among the speakers will be Lord Lytton, Arthur Henderson, M. P., the Bishop of Kensington and Miss Irene Vanbrugh, one of England's leading actresses. Resolutions will be submitted demanding that a government measure for the enfranchisement of women be introduced in parliament in the present session, and a collection will be taken to be used to open a fund to be known as the Women's Suffrage Mandate Fund, which will be used for campaign purposes throughout the country. The National Union now has a membership of 50,000 and is by far the largest and most influential women's organization in Great Britain.

Roberts Secures Moving Picture Concession at Fair

With a career of over thirty years in the show business, including the management of some of the largest amusement concessions at the big expositions, having had for the past seven years moving picture theaters in this city, the largest theaters of their kind between Los Angeles and San Diego, Manager "Doc" Roberts has been successful in securing two of the most valuable show grants at the exposition to be held in San Diego during the entire year of 1915.

"Doc's" concessions are exclusively for the moving picture theater and the moving picture studio on the inside of the exposition grounds; so with his knowledge of exposition work and his record as a motion picture theater manager, it is easy to see that he is the logical man for these big shows.

The studio will present, for the first time in history, the staging, enacting, taking and finishing of films of moving pictures on the exposition grounds. The studio will be up-to-date, equipped with all modern appliances, including a powerful lighting plant, so as to take pictures at night in full view of an audience in an amphitheater with seats for 1000 people. It is the intention to show, along with the big program in the picture theater, the pictures that have been taken of events on the grounds as well as those staged in the studio.

"Doc" Roberts has organized a company, of which he is the president and general manager, and the company will own the two attractions, it being the intention to sell a limited amount of stock.

Among those already having associated themselves with Manager Roberts are V. S. Gundry of Long Beach, Jos. R. Smith, Chas. S. Kelley and Horatio J. Forgy, all of Santa Ana. Mr. Smith will be largely interested in the selling of the stock. Mr. Forgy will look after the legal end of the company's affairs, while Mr. A. Lawrence Valk of Los Angeles, who has planned 175 theaters in California in the past eight years, will draw the plans and superintend the construction of all of the buildings.

Manager Roberts, with members of his company, including his architect, has just returned from the exposition grounds, where he has had the choice of locations, and the selection is of the best, and is final, being in the center of the "big ones" on "The Isthmus."

Doc's party reports that great advancement has been made in the entire work of the exposition and there is no doubt but that everything will be in readiness months before the opening day.

Work will be rushed on the plans for the building of "Doc's" company, and in a short time he, with his directors, including Mrs. Roberts, who will break first ground for the shows, will go to San Diego to celebrate the event.

It is safe to say that out of every hundred people from Orange county who go to the fair, ninety-nine will visit "Doc's" shows.

SEX HYGIENE INSTRUCTION IS DISCUSSED

Secretary Hamilton Read Paper
on the Subject to County
Medical Society

At the last meeting of the Orange County Medical Society held in the Library, a paper was read by Robert J. Hamilton, Orange County Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. on "Where and How Shall Sex Instruction be Given?"

The paper emphasized a number of suggestions and resulted in a very animated discussion of the subject by the doctors who were present. Two of the physicians emphatically stated that attempts to teach sex hygiene in schools do more harm than good.

The suggestion was made that the home was the best place for such instruction to be given, but Hamilton contended that there are many homes in which there is not sufficient knowledge or interest to give this instruction right, the schools should have some arrangement for giving this instruction. Some of the doctors felt that this could be well done in connection with the physiology class rather than by any public lecture. They said children's temperaments differ so widely that only parents can judge of what shall or shall not be told their children.

The suggestion was made in the secretary's paper that the church should take a larger interest in this subject as so many young people were led astray and the good done in church and Sunday school was offset by the wrong which comes from ignorance of this subject. The newspapers were also given their share of blame for publishing so much that was suggestive along the lines of evil and not putting enough in that was constructive along this line. It was stated by Hamilton that books along this line should be read more largely by parents than they are in order that they might more intelligently present the truth to their own children, and a number of the best books along this line were exhibited, being the property of the Orange County Y. M. C. A.

It was suggested that libraries throughout the country should have a "Parents' Book Shelf" where such books could be within the easy access of parents; and an important suggestion was made that women's clubs, parents associations and various other public spirited organizations should endeavor to conduct classes or lectures to train parents to properly teach their children along this line in order that it can be done in the home, and so that it will not be necessary to do so much of it outside of the home.

AUTOS COLLIDE NEAR TALBERT

Steering Gear Held Responsible for Mix-Up of Cars
Last Sunday

TALBERT, Feb. 14.—Last Sunday afternoon near the Huntington Beach cemetery there came near being a very serious accident when two machines collided. One was occupied by the Graham Bros. of Huntington Beach and the other by A. L. Worthy and G. Cole. The parties were riding along beside each other when the steering wheel of one of the machines broke and suddenly turned the machine into the other one. Both machines were thrown out of the road. One of the men was unconscious for a while.

The local grammar school had a half holiday last Thursday, the 12th, and celebrated Lincoln's birthday. The children worked up a good program under the direction of Misses Mead and Hallacy and rendered it Thursday afternoon. On Friday afternoon they had a Valentine box party.

A. E. Paine of Huntington Beach visited the school last week and was very much impressed with the grade of work that is being done. The teachers deserve much credit for the way they are conducting the school.

The young people of the community gave a dance at the Japanese Hall last Saturday night and while they were having a good time, a Mexican by the name of Jose Sandjas who had taken an overdose of booze attempted to interrupt the proceedings with his presence. He was arrested by S. E. Talbert and held until the officers from Santa Ana came out for him.

The Ladies' Home Missionary Society had an all day meeting Wednesday and put down new carpet in the church and put new shades on for the acetylene lights, which add much to the appearance of the church.

B. F. Rush of Huntington Beach is painting the Swift Garage this week.

H. G. Nagochi made a business trip to Los Angeles last Monday.

Rev. A. B. Waldrep and wife with her mother and sister went to Catalina Island Tuesday and returned the same day.

Mrs. M. A. Nimmo, who was taken to the San Pedro hospital last week, does not seem to be improving. John Brewer was over to see her last Sunday.

David Pickett and wife of Long Beach spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Roy Manley, last Sunday. The Garden Grove Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the church service here Sunday night.

HEADED FOR A FALL

Those conservative or reactionary Republicans—both the sincere and the insincere kind—who are taking great unctious to their souls over the registration returns are headed for a great big fall—in fact, they are conditionally headed for two great big falls.

The first fall is due to come with a dull thud when they try to secure the nomination of reactionary candidates.

The second fall is due to come with a heavier dull thud when they try to elect reactionary candidates, if perchance such candidates should be nominated.

Evidence multiplies, with the rapidity of the increase of compound interest, that at least two-thirds if not three-fourths of the voters registering as Republicans are Progressive Republicans who will strenuously oppose the nomination of reactionary candidates, and will not support such candidates if nominated.

Yea, verily, the apparently luscious fruit of a ripening reactionary renaissance will prove to be a veritable dead sea apple that will turn to bitter ashes on the lips.

No matter what the registration returns may show, now or hereafter, we believe that Governor Johnson and Progressive principles are invincible. They will be supported at the November election by thousands who register as Republicans, as Democrats, as Prohibitionists, and by the vast majority of those who register without giving their party affiliation.

The rank and file of the Republican party and of the Democratic party and of every other party is progressive. Three out of four voters of all parties—especially of the Republican party—are as good Progressives as any who ever enlisted under the banner of the party of Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram W. Johnson. And by the same token all Progressives who have gone from the Republican party into the new party are as good Republicans as any who remain with the Republican party.

Fundamentally it is not a question of party with these men and women, whatever may be their party affiliation; it is a question of principle.

And we are persuaded that "RIGHT MAKES MIGHT."

CENSORING THE THEATER

When they tried in New York to stop "Mrs. Warren's Profession," alleged to be immoral, a mob of would-be spectators blocked Broadway. Prices as high as $60.00 each were paid for rear balcony seats.

Condemnation of unclean plays frequently produces a result precisely opposite to that which was desired. A certain company was closed up at Trenton, N. J. It then advertised the play as "The show that made Trenton famous." No doubt it did a big business.

A Roman Catholic movement has been working over this difficult problem for a year, indorsed by Cardinal Farley. It is now announcing from the pulpits of New York a list of plays called worthy of the patronage of church people. This should give these plays a financial backing that is sometimes missing. It avoids the mistake of advertising what is unclean.

A problem of much difficulty is presented by a group of dramas which speak openly of vice and its sordid horror, apparently from frank desire to warn the public against danger. But the audience may not see the performance from this viewpoint. It may be the same crowd that gloats over the so-called "spicy salad with very little dressing." Quite likely they snicker and cackle over what the author intended for purifying tragedy.

Some people think a spade should never be called a spade, but rather an implement used in agriculture. Yet if you suggest that even a chorus girl should recognize that the custom of wearing clothes is sustained by good reasons, the retort will be made that next piano legs will have to be draped.

One may well hope that a day of cleaner living is to come, when sickly indecency will lose its interest for healthy minded people. Meanwhile it is pleasant to note that the companies that play around the circuits never—well, hardly ever descend to the degradation of which so much is seen in the great cities.

—O. K. Barber Shop will maintain same popular prices as heretofore, except no charge for neck shaving Open Sundays until noon. First class work guaranteed. O. C. Overman, Mgr., 317 East Fourth St.

Lincoln and Progressivism

Governor Johnson's Great Lincoln Day Speech in Temple Auditorium, Los Angeles.

At Bloomington, Ill., on the 29th day of May, 1866, there was a memorable gathering of earnest men, animated by the highest patriotic resolve. All over the nation during the previous year the excitement had been intense. The new state of Kansas was in the hands of a pro-slavery mob, her governor a prisoner, her capital in ruins, her voters intimidated. In the northern states the love of freedom was struggling with party fealty and straining at the bonds of party tradition. At Bloomington, Democrats, Abolitionists and Whigs were meeting to form a new party dedicated to the constitution of the United States and based upon the eternal truth that all men are born free and equal. The gathering proceeded with its labors, but Whig looked askance at Democrat, and Democrat felt the old antipathy to Abolitionist. The need was apparent among all of some force that could weld the discordant elements. Effort after effort was made solemnly and eloquently, and yet, all felt the result had not been accomplished. Suddenly, a voice was raised with the call of a name not upon the program, "Lincoln," and "Lincoln," and "Lincoln," resounded throughout the hall. The tall, gaunt, homely figure of one who had been the foremost Whig of Illinois ascended the platform, and with intense emotion depicted upon his face began to speak. For many, many years Lincoln had been a Whig, and with deep conviction had espoused that party's cause, and had been the recipient of many honors at its hands. In turn he had been in the legislature and the Congress of the United States, and almost a senator from Illinois. His devotion to his party had been exemplified in years of activity and many memorable contests. As he stood upon that platform before the men who were risking all for human freedom, he felt himself at the parting of the ways. For two years past, within the Whig party he had endeavored to fight the extension of slavery. He had found that if he succeeded in a particular locality with his vital principles, he was thwarted by leaders in other localities, and that within the old party of which he had been so prominent a part the struggle was hopeless. Conservative intimates begged him not to attend the Bloomington convention. Weak and timid well-wishers argued long that he should not sacrifice himself or his political future by espousing a cause, the success of which they were unable to foresee. Hesitating, halting and vacillating friends to whom the party meant more than all else implored him to continue within the Whig party, to purify that party from within and to make that party finally the opponent of slavery extension and the party of the free. But with that prophetic vision which Lincoln had in such marked degree, he saw that within the old party, under its leadership, to continue the struggle meant postponement indefinitely of achievement and that the hope of arresting at once the onward march of slavery, the hope of human freedom, lay alone in a new political alignment, the shattering of old political ties, the rending of the spell of political traditions, and the coming together in a separate and distinct political organization of the men of the nation who believed in humanity and its freedom.

Old Parties Forgotten
Lincoln stood before the Illinois convention, and he made his auditors see the triviality of their differences as compared with the tremendous task before them. So eloquently did he portray the situation, so gloriously paint the work that was theirs to do, that all understood, and with common impulse old parties were forgotten in the hope of the future. The speech delivered by Mr. Lincoln on this occasion is known as the "lost speech" because he held his audience so spellbound that even the newspaper men present forgot to take notes, and what was said has been preserved only in fragments. The influence of the speech was immediate and lasting, and the impetus given to the new party by Mr. Lincoln on this day in the state of Illinois was a great contributing factor in that party's ultimate success.

Had Mr. Lincoln listened to the timid and the shrinking, the halting and the hesitating, the selfish and the calculating, those who could not move from the shadow of the past greatness of the old political parties, and who could not resist following their traditions, he would have been lost to the Republican party and the Republican party might have been lost to the nation. And those who today call themselves Republicans and who, if they believe the leaders of that party have gone far astray and have forgotten its fundamental principles, fear to associate themselves together for the accomplishment of their principles, have forgotten the history of the formation of the Republican party. If they will but recall that the Republican party owed its existence to an undying principle that could not find its expression in the parties of the day, that in these parties all political traditions then centered, and that to depart from them meant a greater wrench than to depart from present political parties, the hesitation and fear prevalent now with so many good people will at once disappear.

Lincoln to His Critics
When Mr. Lincoln was upbraided for his desertion of his old party, he said:
"I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true. I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live up to what light I have."
"I must stand with anybody that stands right; stand with him while he stands right and part with him when he goes wrong."
And so Progressives say today: We are not bound to win, but we are bound to keep the faith. We will stand with any party that is right, and part with them when they are wrong. The homely truth for which Progressives now contend that men of like political principles should associate themselves together to carry out those principles found its expression in the first platform adopted by the Republican party in the state of Illinois, when, in part, it was resolved:

"1. That we believe this truth to be self-evident that when parties become subversive to the ends for which they are established, or incapable of restoring the government to the true principles of the constitution, it is the right and duty of the people to dissolve the political bands by which they may have been connected therewith, and to organize new parties upon such principles and with such views as the circumstances and the exigencies of the nation may demand."
"2. That the times imperatively demand the reorganization of parties and, repudiating all previous party attachments, names, and predilections, we unite ourselves together to pledge to bring the administration of the government back to the control of first principles."

And when we Progressives who believe in popular rule and to whom the creed of humanity is the foremost political tenet, insist that all with similar views come together to carry those views into execution governmentally, we but do what the founders of the Republican party did, and we but act as they decreed in the early days of their party.

And what has been said concerning those of the old Republican party whose principles are at variance with the concepts and the doctrines of the leaders of that party, can as well be said of the present Democratic party. In both parties today there exist in the nation two distinct classes. The views of these two classes are as diametrically opposed as the poles. Each party possesses its reactionary class and its progressive, and in each party the doctrines of the reactionary classes are similar while the principles of the Progressives of both parties are, among their essentials, not unlike.

There is no sphere of human endeavor where men of like views do not associate themselves together to carry out their views; and it is one of the mysteries of our political life that when a political party no longer represents the views of any individual within it or of any number of individuals, they must continue within that political party, deferring to an uncertain time far in the future the realization of their dearest principles, because, as the strict party man asserts, these principles may only be carried into successful execution through the medium of that particular party. Were we to indulge in a like insistence in our other activities of life we would be met with ridicule and scorn, but men who have profited by party triumph have so indolently drilled into the mind of the ordinary individual party fealty and the necessity for voting as the party dictates, that the ordinary man, engrossed with his daily cares, has come to have a shuddering fear of desertion of his party or of the formation of a new one.

Lincoln, with his remarkable presence, foresaw the possibility of changing parties, and said, substantially, that the men composing those parties will die but the principles will live forever, and that the principles, if the necessity ever arose, would produce another party.

A FAREWELL RECEPTION

Miss Edna Masters Honoree at Class Event Before Coming Departure

Miss Edna Masters was certainly surprised yesterday afternoon when about twenty-five girls of the Delta Alpha class of the First Methodist Episcopal church and their teacher, Mrs. James H. Edwards, tendered her a farewell reception before her departure next week for the new home in Los Angeles. To make the surprise more complete, the girls entered the house by way of the alley and kitchen door.

The honoree was presented with a beautiful souvenir spoon as a token of the high esteem in which she is held by the class. She was also given a postal card shower. Miss Masters was for several years superintendent of the home department of the First M. E. Church Sunday School and won many friends among the "shut-ins." She was ever willing to bear her share of the church work and will be greatly missed. Miss Harriett Doolittle had thoughtfully taken her kodak with her and snapped some pictures of the class which will no doubt be cherished as souvenirs by every one present at this farewell event for one dear to them all. Excellent piano numbers were rendered by Mrs. Van Doren, Miss Loraine French and Miss Minnie Wild. After the music fine home-made candy, the handiwork of the girls of the class, was enjoyed.

Those present beside Miss Masters were Mesdames Edwards, Moorhouse, Van Doren, Murphy, Williams, Misses Cora Craig, Marie Drake, Harriett Doolittle, Loraine French, Grace Grigsby, Esther Herickson, Virginia Johnston, Ava Lull, Myrtle Nelson, Nellie O'Brien, Gertrude Richardson, Mattie Smith, Minnie Wild, Frances Johnston, Etta Hale.

Visited El Modena W. C. T. U.
Mrs. F. J. Rogers, county W. C. T. U. president, was a guest of the El Modena W. C. T. U. yesterday, the union meeting at the home of Mrs. W. M. Durham, the president. A fine program was enjoyed. Mrs. Rogers giving a memorial address on Frances Willard. There was a large attendance and the meeting was an enthusiastic one. The hostess, Mrs. Durham served delicious refreshments at the close of the meeting.

The El Modena union is active and prosperous and Mrs. Rogers reports that it is doing work.

W. R. C. Monthly Tea
Yesterday was a red letter day with the W. R. C. and Sedwick Post. A large crowd attended the monthly W. R. C. tea and the delicious refreshments and little souvenirs of red hearts were fully appreciated by all the guests. A very enjoyable program was given as follows:

Instrumental Duet—Mrs. Grace Moesser and Ada Paul.
Vocal Solo—Mr. Walter Dieria.
Reading—Mr. Diabio.
Vocal Duet—Mesdames Emma Chapman and Nellie King.
Reading—Mrs. Nellie King.
Quartet—Mrs. Ludwig, Mrs. Thomas, Miss Marie Thomas and Mrs. Post.
Vocal Solo—Mrs. Gertrude Sackman.

The Fifth Street Parent-Teacher Association will meet Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 17th, at 3:15. The program will consist of a question box and round table.

CHARMING LUNCHEON

Mrs. Frank H. Case Entertained Yesterday With Pleasant Afternoon Function

Mrs. Frank H. Case entertained charmingly yesterday with a 1 o'clock luncheon at which she used friasias and maidenhair ferns in the lovely centerpiece. The luncheon, daintily appointed, was served in a succession of five courses and covers were laid for Mrs. C. W. Burns, Mrs. C. E. French, Mrs. L. J. Carden, Mrs. Theo. A. Winbiger, Mrs. J. G. Bailey, Mrs. Fred Case, Mrs. Rufus Chase, Mrs. George Briggs, Mrs. Wm. Malone, Mrs. H. C. Dawes; Miss Ethel French.

A guessing contest engaged the ladies in the afternoon with Mrs. H. C. Dawes winning first honors with its corresponding prize, Mrs. J. G. Bailey taking the consolation trophy.

Duplicate Whist Club
A meeting of the Duplicate Whist Club was held at the hospitable home of Mrs. Jas. S. Rice Thursday afternoon.

This club is now about fifteen years old, and the love of duplicate whist has been a bond to hold together this coterie of old friends and newer ones as well. They were Mrs. S. W. Nau and her house guest, Mrs. Ella Ballard Hanna; Mrs. E. R. Mauzy and her cousin, Mrs. Kleinschmidt of Indianapolis; Mrs. Robert Reid, and the hostess, Mrs. Jas. S. Rice.

The house was decorated with stately poinsettias and lovely roses. A four-course luncheon was served after Mrs. Rice's own style, and it was dainty and delicious.

Round Table Club
The Round Table in Philosophy will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the office of Frederick H. Eley, Register building. The subject for discussion will be: "The Doctrine of Reincarnation and Karma." A general survey of the field of Oriental philosophy, Brahmanism, Buddhism, Theosophy, etc., will be presented as a background for the theory. The doctrine of reincarnation is attractive to many persons. What is there in it?

To Express Thanks
The ladies of the Altar Society of St. Joseph's Catholic church wish to express their sincere thanks to all the merchants who extended courtesies to them during the Blade contest, also to those who helped them in any way to win the $100 prize.

The money obtained by the untiring efforts of the committee will be used as a nucleus towards the purchase of a lot for a new church here, the congregation, both American and Mexican, having grown so rapidly during the past year that two buildings are necessary.

TWO PLEASANT EVENTS

Miss Crookshank Hostess to Club—Mrs. Fyfe's Dinner for the Crookshank Families

Miss Lida Crookshank was hostess yesterday afternoon at the M. M. Crookshank home to her to-be traveling companions on an Oriental trip. Mrs. Gertrude Finley and Miss Celia Cotter; to the following members of the Inter Se Club: Mrs. W. L. Bulard, Mrs. Geo. S. Smith, Mrs. Warren Brakeman, Miss Mary Cotter and Miss Margaret Orr; and to Mrs. E. S. Wallace, Mrs. Ella Fyfe, and Miss Mary Talbot.

Dainty needlework and interesting chat over the prospective tour of the Hawaiian Islands, Japan and the Philippines by the party of three leaving Saturday, Feb. 21, filled the afternoon hours. Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Crookshank, narcissus, violets and maidenhair ferns being employed in decorations of the table. The violets were massed in the center, on a handsome cluny lace centerpiece, and cut glass holders at either end of the table held narcissus and ferns. Dutch figure Valentines were the cunning place cards.

Miss Crookshank, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Crookshank, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crookshank, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Crookshank, Clarence Crookshank, Master Ronald Crookshank and Mrs. Hatch, a house guest at the M. M. Crookshank home, were guests at a 6 o'clock dinner on Wednesday evening at the French street home of Mrs. George R. Smith and Mrs. Ella Fyfe.

Pink carnations and violets were used in decorations. The afternoon dinner was spent with music and conversation. The affair was particularly interesting in anticipation of the delightful trip abroad soon to be taken by Miss Crookshank.

Travel Club No. 2
Travel Section No. 2, of the Ebelle Club will meet Monday afternoon with Mrs. C. W. Burns, 451 West Sixth street.

For Los Angeles Guests
Mrs. J. R. Porter of Orange, who entertains very charmingly, gave another of her pretty parties yesterday afternoon. The function was in the nature of a one o'clock luncheon, the guests all being from Los Angeles. Yellow and violet entered into the decorative scheme and the favors were corsage bouquets of violets and lilies of the valley. Auction bridge was played in the afternoon.

Mrs. Porter's guests were the following society women from Los Angeles: Mrs. W. W. Woods, Mrs. Arlene Waters, Mrs. Eugene Pettigrew, Mrs. E. J. Cook, Mrs. Calvin Seeley, Mrs. Charles Noyes, Mrs. Will E. Dunn, Mrs. Ben Smith, Mrs. Alfred Fellows, Mrs. Jas. J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Carl Kurtz, Mrs. J. Bond Francisco, Mrs. W. H. Burnham.

"Lucky" Thirteen
Mrs. H. K. Huff of 610 West Second street delightfully entertained the "Lucky Thirteen" club Thursday afternoon. The time was spent in dainty needlework and conversation.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Walton. The table was beautifully and artistically decorated with Camellia blossoms.

The next meeting will be Feb. 26 at the home of Mrs. J. R. Wilcox.

At the Visel Home
The Woman's Bible Class of the First Methodist church had a social meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Visel. The spacious rooms were prettily decorated with Laurestinia.

Over the needlework that kept the ladies busy as they talked, plans were made for activity in the year's work. It was decided to do mission sewing at each meeting, one of which will be held every month during the year.

The pleasant social time was completed by the serving of delicious refreshments by Mrs. Visel. There were about thirty ladies present.

Parent-Teacher Meeting
The meeting of the Tustin Parent-Teacher Association was held at the schoolhouse Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with about seventy-five members present.

The president, C. E. Utt, presided. Four songs were sung from the school song book.

Miss Mary Hanson of Santa Ana, who is a graduate of Thomas Normal School of Detroit, Mich., gave a very interesting talk on school lunches and how to prepare them.

The subject of the new schoolhouse was then introduced by Mr. Utt, saying the trustees had an option on two sites, and that they wanted to get the opinion of those present as to the best location, and explained the advantages of both places and gave the prices.

After a lengthy discussion of the subject, in which many took part, a unanimous vote was cast for retaining the old grounds with the addition of the Moore place, which is just across Second street. This will give about four acres, and will necessitate closing Second street for one block, between B and C streets. Cuts were shown of the new building giving front views. A petition was drawn up to have the street closed and signers will be secured as soon as possible. An additional bond issue will be necessary to finish the building as designated.

A rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Utt for the offer of a lot belonging to him in case they decided to take the old hotel grounds. He said this property would be purchased by another party.

At the meeting there was some opposition regarding the closing of Second street for one block through the school yard, but when the petitions were circulated this morning, every one of those who had opposed the closing of the street signed to close it.

Household Economics
The Fifth Section of Household Economics met with Mrs. T. B. Elliott on Friday afternoon. The home was decorated in red hearts and small cupid with poinsettias and red geraniums as the floral adornments.

The subject was "Fish and Oysters. Their Nutritive Value as Food." At roll call each member gave a recipe on the subject, and a general discussion of the topic followed. Mrs. J. E. Gowen gave an interesting paper on the subject which was greatly enjoyed.

With the serving of refreshments, heart-shaped cards on which were printed a menu for a fish dinner, were presented to the members. The program committee for the afternoon was Mrs. W. W. Chandler, Mrs. T. B. Elliott, Mrs. J. E. Gowen, Mrs. Decker, Miss Head.

Celebrated Birthday
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Morrow last night entertained a coterie of neighbors and friends in their own pleasant way. It developed during the evening that the event was a celebration of Mr. Morrow's birthday and this pleasurable information brought forth felicitations as well as some jolting on the part of the men as to the age of the host.

Auction bridge was played with Mrs. C. M. Jordan winning first ladies' prize, a guest towel; and Robert Shaffer taking men's first prize, a deck of cards. Consolation prizes, two huge heart-shaped cookies, were awarded to Mrs. Shaffer and H. T. Duckett.

Refreshments, served after the games, were followed by the introduction of a handsome birthday cake properly adorned with candles representing Mr. Morrow's tender years. While the guests made all sorts of good wishes Mr. Morrow successfully extinguished all the candles with one strong blow, thereby gaining all the good wished for him.

The guests of the Morrow's were Mesdames E. S. Gilbert, Russell Scott, Fred Parsons, Robert Shaffer, C. M. Jordan, H. T. Duckett, Dr. and Mrs. Roscoe Whitted.

AGVOV FIRE PLUGS
Orange News: Marshal Herbert Sutton expects to begin enforcing the ordinance regarding automobiles left standing in the street near fire plugs. tate closing Second street for one block, between B and C streets. Cuts were shown of the new building giving front views. A petition was drawn up to have the street closed and signers will be secured as soon as possible. An additional bond issue will be necessary to finish the building as designated.

A rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Utt for the offer of a lot belonging to him in case they decided to take the old hotel grounds. He said this property would be purchased by another party.

At the meeting there was some opposition regarding the closing of Second street for one block through the school yard, but when the petitions were circulated this morning, every one of those who had opposed the closing of the street signed to close it.

Household Economics
The Fifth Section of Household Economics met with Mrs. T. B. Elliott on Friday afternoon. The home was decorated in red hearts and small cupid with poinsettias and red geraniums as the floral adornments.

The subject was "Fish and Oysters. Their Nutritive Value as Food." At roll call each member gave a recipe on the subject, and a general discussion of the topic followed. Mrs. J. E. Gowen gave an interesting paper on the subject which was greatly enjoyed.

With the serving of refreshments, heart-shaped cards on which were printed a menu for a fish dinner, were presented to the members. The program committee for the afternoon was Mrs. W. W. Chandler, Mrs. T. B. Elliott, Mrs. J. E. Gowen, Mrs. Decker, Miss Head.

Celebrated Birthday
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Morrow last night entertained a coterie of neighbors and friends in their own pleasant way. It developed during the evening that the event was a celebration of Mr. Morrow's birthday and this pleasurable information brought forth felicitations as well as some jolting on the part of the men as to the age of the host.

Auction bridge was played with Mrs. C. M. Jordan winning first ladies' prize, a guest towel; and Robert Shaffer taking men's first prize, a deck of cards. Consolation prizes, two huge heart-shaped cookies, were awarded to Mrs. Shaffer and H. T. Duckett.

Refreshments, served after the games, were followed by the introduction of a handsome birthday cake properly adorned with candles representing Mr. Morrow's tender years. While the guests made all sorts of good wishes Mr. Morrow successfully extinguished all the candles with one strong blow, thereby gaining all the good wished for him.

The guests of the Morrow's were Mesdames E. S. Gilbert, Russell Scott, Fred Parsons, Robert Shaffer, C. M. Jordan, H. T. Duckett, Dr. and Mrs. Roscoe Whitted.

MRS. KINGSLEY SWAN FINDS RENO TOO DULL

Mrs. Kingsley Swan has found that seeking a divorce in Reno, after the delights of New York city, is not so diverting an undertaking as she expected. She found Reno was horribly dull. There was tango, of course. There was everything you might see anywhere else in the world, but on a miniature scale. So she had to go away from there for a period, and she sought solace in what the inhabitants used to denigrate the "Paris of the West"—San Francisco. She and a friend hiked off to the Pacific coast and put up at the St. Francis Hotel, where their tango efforts won publicity, as much publicity as they wished. Then they went back to Reno to wait the tedious months necessary to acquire residence there for court proceedings.

PALMER CHILD LABOR BILL MEANS LONG STEP FORWARD

Mrs. Florence Kelley Says Proposed Law is Most Important of Any Such Bills Yet Offered

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The introduction of the Palmer child labor bill, according to Mrs. Florence Kelley, member of the board of trustees of the National Child Labor Committee, is a long step forward in the fight to free children from factories and send them to school. The bill, which proposes to prohibit interstate commerce in goods produced by children under fourteen years of age, or by children under sixteen who have worked more than eight hours a day, is declared to be the most important of any similar bills that have been introduced. Mrs. Kelley has prepared the following article explaining why this is so:

(Written for the United Press by Mrs. Florence Kelley.)

The child labor bill introduced in congress by Representative A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania on January 26, last, is more comprehensive than the Kenyon child labor bill in which hitherto I have been deeply interested. It applies to manufacturing establishments, factories, mines and quarries, mills, canneries and work shops. It is more extensive than the Kenyon bill in that it regulates the employment of children between the ages of 14 and 16 years, restricting their working hours to eight in one day and to the daylight hours from 7 contains more provisions and authorizes more officials to begin suit upon complaint of more different sets of people.

The question is often asked whether an interstate commerce provision would supersede state laws and municipal ordinances. It could not do this for the following reasons: It can in the nature of things apply only to goods manufactured, mined or quarried; it leaves untouched the messenger service, employment in department stores and other forms of retail trade; all agricultural work such as cotton picking, berry and hop picking, weeding in the beet fields, and all other kinds of agricultural and horticultural work in which children are employed in ever increasing numbers.

Such a law cannot interfere with street work, such as newspaper vending, peddling, boot-blackening, and service as delivery boys on wagons, which have to be dealt with by state laws or municipal ordinances. Furthermore, there are certain dangerous trades which by a score of existing state laws have been forbidden to all children under 16 years or 18 years. The only feasible attempt to touch upon this important point by federal legislation is the prohibition of work in mines and quarries by children under 16 years.

Such a provision is included in the Palmer bill but no protection is afforded to children in other dangerous trades for dangerous machines and various occupations involving the lives of others are not and could not be included.

We have an analogy in the case of the pure food law. The states and cities have never been so stimulated to enact and enforce legislation with regard to foods prepared for sale within their own borders as since the enactment of the pure food and drugs law, and there is every reason to believe that the proposed federal child labor law would work in the same way.

I believe that the educational work of the National Child Labor Commission will be found to have entered upon a new phase more valuable than all the good campaigns that it has hitherto carried on.

States whose statutes are good on paper only will receive a new stimulus to the enforcement of their laws. And refractory states such as West Virginia and the great cotton manufacturing communities of the south will receive a challenge they cannot ignore through this aggressive attack upon the sham laws which disgrace their statute books.

EXCESS BAGGAGE RATES DISCUSSED

Rates Operative on 69 Railroads Said Unjust—Commission Holds Hearing

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Excess baggage rates now operative on sixty-nine railroads in the United States were characterized as an unjust tax on commerce at a hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission here today. At present the usual rate is 16 2/3 per cent of one passenger fare for every 100 pounds of excess and the commission was asked to enforce a graduated rate that should range from 8 to 12 1/2 per cent of the passenger fare. The present minimum charge of 25 cents was not attacked. The National Baggage Committee, the petitioner representing through its allied organizations 35,000 business houses and 400,000 commercial travelers, on whom the alleged unfair rates fall most heavily. The Merchants' Association of New York, the Chicago Association of Commerce, and the St. Louis Business Men's League are among others represented by the committee.

Figures were cited at today's hearing to show that the railroads collected $7,173,402 last year on excess of baggage and that this was not more than a normal return on the amount of labor performed and the capital invested. Emphasis was given to the fact that no extra trains and but few extra men are necessary to handle baggage, as it is always carried in a car attached to a passenger train. Furthermore, 50 per cent of the money collected is for excess weight of a single trunk, rather than for extra pieces of baggage, so that the amount of the extra work is very small.

The usual amount of baggage carried without extra charge is 150 pounds per passenger, no single piece to weigh more than 250 pounds, though in some states the roads carry 200 pounds without additional charge. In Canada no extra charge is made where the baggage does not weigh more than 300 pounds. Until 1908 the general rate was 12 1/2 per cent of one fare for every 100 pounds of excess, but as passenger rates were cut very materially about that time the percentage was increased accordingly.

In summing up before the commission the attorneys for the complaint said that the railroads carry an express package for about 50 per cent of what the express company receives for transporting it, but that they make a much larger profit.

For a similar service, for 100 pounds, the new express rate per pound is $2.40, of which the railroad gets approximately $1.20. But for transporting 100 pounds of excess baggage it collects $3.35. Similarly it gets $5.55 for carrying 100 pounds of excess baggage from New York to New Orleans, but if the same weight were sent by express the railroad would get but $2.20 and the express company a like amount.

Objections were also made to the present insurance rate for excess baggage. At present it is 10 cents on every $100 with a minimum charge of 25 cents. The commission was asked to establish a minimum of 10 cents, such as the express companies now have.

Another complaint is that of the Jewelers' Protective Union which objects to the order of the railroads that "commercial baggage," as differentiated from "personal baggage" shall not contain goods for actual sale but only samples or patterns. This will come up for oral argument shortly.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally. Says a well-known authority, "Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys."

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.

Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:

CAMDEN, N.J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 1135 Knight St., Camden, N.J.

And this one from Mrs. Haddock:

UTICA, OKLA.—"I was weak and nervous, not able to do my work and scarcely able to be on my feet. I had backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, trouble with my bowels, and inflammation. Since taking the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am better than I have been for twenty years. I think it is a wonderful medicine and I have recommended it to others."—Mrs. MARY ANN HADDOCK, Utica, Oklahoma.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The season on California celery is gradually drawing to a close, and although prices have not advanced, and probably will not move upward very rapidly or soon, the shipping season is about past. There has never been a year when quotations on this product have held as firm and steady. Prices to the producer have not been as high as last year, owing to the heavy production, which has broken all previous records. More than 1000 cars have been grown in the Los Angeles and Orange county fields, and the product has gone all the way to New York. The present celery quotation is $2.25 on the very best stock obtainable. Northern celery is selling at $3, the difference being not so much in quality as in the cost of shipment. Cauliflower receipts continue very heavy and there will be a large supply on hand until next month. New cabbage is just beginning to arrive. Spinach is an excellent seller. Baby green onions are also in good call. The price on both is 20 cents per dozen bunches for the best. Mushrooms are plentiful and the record of a three-pound fungus was broken yesterday morning when one weighing several ounces over five pounds was received by one of the commission houses.

The egg market slipped decidedly yesterday morning, going to 22 cents, despite active trading. There has been a very heavy influx of eastern stock in addition to local, and one retailer grocer yesterday sold fresh eggs below wholesale prices, asking only 20 cents a dozen. This and the marked reduction in this state and the east within the last few days is given as the principal cause for the decline.

BEGIN ANOTHER YORBA LINDA ACTION

Same as First, Only More Plaintiffs Are Concerned in It

The Yorba Linda residents are not overlooking any chances to keep hot on the trail of the promoters of the tract. Yesterday afternoon the third action brought in this county was commenced here, naming as defendants Jacob Stern, M. N. Newmark, H. W. Frank, Peter Janss, Janss Investment Company and the Yorba Linda Water Company. With an action begun in Los Angeles with the purpose of rescinding $175,000 bonds issued by the Yorba Linda Water Company there are now four suits before the courts in which the same vital issues are concerned.

The Yorba Lindans assert that the promoters charged them $50 an acre extra for their water rights, contrived to make them pay for the water a second time and are now trying to make them pay for it a third time. The landowners declare that when they purchased the property they thought they were buying one-fifth of an inch of water per acre. They say that while the promoters sold the land by manipulation the promoters retained control of the water company, and are now assessing the property owners to pay interest on $175,000 bonds, which the Yorba Lindans say were issued without any consideration whatever.

Charles R. Johnson and fifty-six others are plaintiffs in the latest action, brought here by Attorneys Heney & Carr. A temporary injunction has been issued by Judge Thomas restraining the defendants from selling any of the stock of the water company and from discontinuing the service of water to the land owners. The court is asked to compel the defendants to surrender all bonds of the water company that they have, to extend their water works until water is developed in quantities quoted in their agreements to sell land and that no further assessments be levied to pay assessments upon the bonds.

Articles Filed
Articles of incorporation were filed today by the Exhibition Moving Picture Company, which has a concession at the San Diego fair. The capital stock is $50,000, of which one share, twenty cents each, is subscribed by the five directors, Dr. A. M. Roberts, L. A. Roberts, Joseph P. Smith, C. S. Kelly and H. J. Forgy.

Divorce Matters
A final decree of divorce was granted to Susie Mara against Richard Mara.

Judge Thomas heard the plea of Loretta Bryan of Brea for $40 a month maintenance from her husband, Abner Bryan. After the hearing Judge Thomas took the couple to his chambers and endeavored to get them to settle their difficulties. They promised to do so, and probably the divorce action will be dropped.

Set for Trial
Cases set for trial by Judge Thomas yesterday are German-American Bank vs. Kuebler, February 27; Richmond vs. Fowler, April 28; Kuebler vs. Hall, May 5.
J. E. Barker, W. F. Menton and J. N. Anderson have been appointed to appraise the estate of Laura Schultke.

PRETTY HIGH SCHOOL GIRL DISAPPEARS AS DID DOROTHY ARNOLD MORE THAN THREE YEARS AGO

All the police of New York, the newspapers, and much of the population are excited again over the disappearance of a young woman. Florence Lawler, a high school girl of seventeen, has gone, leaving no trace behind, and the case is not unlike that of Dorothy Arnold. The young woman walked from her home to go to a photograph gallery to have some pictures taken for her sorority, and about 5 o'clock in the evening she disappeared. Her home was in a suburban part of Brooklyn, where her father kept a drug store and was a man of considerable means.

FERTILIZER MATERIAL SOUGHT BY U. S. IN THE OCEAN DEPTHS

Continent Scraped For Elements to Enrich Soil—Kelp Beds, Desert Sinks and Florida Peatlands Scoured

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The ocean depths are the latest regions to be explored by the bureau of soils of the Department of Agriculture in its continent-wide search for the nation's assets in fertilizer materials. Just now it is engaged in a hunt for nitrogenous products, which with phosphorus and potassium form the triumvirate of desirable fertilizers, and it is estimated that literally billions of fish might be caught and converted into the richest fertilizing material without appreciably decreasing the supply.

Even the American Indians knew something of the value of fish as fertilizers, and were wont to put one or two in each hill of corn at the time of planting. The first factory for cooking fish by steam for fertilizing purposes was erected near Portsmouth in 1841 and from that time until 1884 the industry grew. Since then, however, it has suffered something of a decline and the revival of this industry to inaugurate a new era of soil fertility to avert threatened depletion of the soil. No region or section has been overlooked by this bureau in its hunt for the three elements named, for their presence is deemed of more value to the nation at large than all the gold veins of California or the untold silver of Nevada. The deserts of the great Southwest have been scoured for potassium salts, the kelp groves of the Pacific coast as far north as Alaska have been experimented with to the same end, great peat beds in Florida are now being examined, and phosphate fields have been discovered in South Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas, Utah and Idaho. None of these, however, gives more promise of development than do the innumerable fish that may be secured by the boat-load in the Atlantic every summer. Acting under the direction of Milton Whitney, chief of the bureau of soils, J. W. Turrentine has just completed an investigation of the possibilities of fish used for this purpose being the menhaden, variously known as the "porgy," "hard head," "bug fish," and other colloquial names. It is seldom used for food. Although as many as 900,000,000 menhaden have been caught and converted into fertilizer in one year, the number becomes almost insignificant when compared with the number of these fish destroyed by their natural enemies, principally the dog fish and the blue fish. One authority estimates this number at three thousand millions.

"Perhaps the most probable extension of the fish-scraper industry through which the employment of fish other than the menhaden for that purpose will prove to be the utilization of the dog fish," said Mr. Turrentine in his report. "This supposition is based on the general hatred for the dog fish entertained by the fishermen and the consensus of opinion that their destruction is imperative. It is estimated that the annual loss from destruction by dog fish of food fish and fishing gear in the state of Massachusetts alone amounts to $400,000."

The Canadian government has already sought to combine a war on the dog fish with an increase in fertilizer material by establishing three plants in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick for the purpose of converting the dog fish into fish-scrap. Near Pensacola, Florida, a plant has recently been erected to utilize the waste due to preparing fish for food. With the establishment of other such plants it is thought that millions of mullet which cannot be disposed of for food might be made available for the fruit and truck growers.

TOKIO PATROLLED BY POLICE TO SHUT OFF TAX MEETINGS

TOKIO, Feb. 14.—Strong forces of police patrolled the streets today, frustrating repeated attempts to hold tax protest meetings. Parliament houses and other government buildings remained under heavy guard, also the offices of government newspapers.

There were persistent reports of grave trouble having occurred in other cities, but if true the government is succeeding admirably in keeping the news suppressed.
